PROGRAM STRUCTURE

The curriculum contains two main blocks: a compulsory part and a part formed by the participants of the educational relations. The compulsory part contains several modules. In years 1-2, students study the disciplines of humanitarian and health saving modules, as well as master the module on physical education and sport. Disciplines, combined within the framework of psycho-pedagogical and theoretical-methodological modules, are studied in years 1-4.

Students study two foreign languages. English is the main one; German (annual intake), Italian, Spanish and Chinese (periodical intake; to be specified annually when admission quotas are approved) are available as a second language.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

After completing the program, Bachelor's graduates are prepared to solve teaching tasks in basic general, secondary general and secondary vocational education.
